Comprehension-

Read the following passage from 'Beware of the Storybook Wolves' and answer the questions below. Get an adult or older brother or sister to help you read if you find it tricky, but try to do it yourself, first.

Unwisely he switched on the light ...and there, standing in front of him, was the big storybook wolf and next to him was the other smaller wolf with a patch over one eye (Herb recognised him as the back-cover wolf).

'Mmm,' Big Wolf said in a low greedy voice, 'I thought I could smell something tasty. I'm going to gobble you up, little boy.' And he started to lick his chops.

'Oooh, can I have his little pink toes? They look just like piglets,' said Little Wolf. And he tried to lick his chops, but he wasn't very good at it and just ended up dribbling on the carpet.

Questions:

1. What does unwisely mean?

2. Who did Herb see standing in front of him when he switched on the light?

3. What does gobble mean?

4. What colour are Herb's toes?

5. What does the Little Wolf say Herb's toes look like?

6. If you are greedy, what do you like to do a lot of?
